

The proposed rule change to allow media corporations to own more radio and TV stations is just plain WRONG. All FCC commissioners must vote against allowing further media concentration .